Jonathan Martin's This Will Not Pass is a sweeping and deeply researched account of the Trump era, providing a detailed look at the events that shaped the presidency and its impact on American society. The book is a valuable resource for anyone seeking to understand this tumultuous period in American history.

A Balanced Perspective

Martin's account is notable for its balance and objectivity. He does not shy away from criticizing Trump when necessary, but he also gives credit where it is due. This even-handed approach allows readers to gain a more nuanced understanding of the Trump presidency.

A Keen Eye for Detail

Martin has a keen eye for detail, and his book is filled with vivid descriptions of the events of the Trump era. He provides a wealth of information about the key players in the Trump administration, as well as the behind-the-scenes machinations that shaped policy decisions.

Complex Forces at Play

Martin does an excellent job of capturing the complex forces at play during the Trump era. He shows how Trump's unique personality and political style interacted with the broader political landscape to produce a presidency that was both unprecedented and deeply polarizing.

A Valuable Resource

This Will Not Pass is a valuable resource for anyone seeking to understand the Trump era. Martin's balanced perspective, keen eye for detail, and deep understanding of the complex forces at play make this book an essential read for anyone interested in this tumultuous period in American history.
